To Our Many Customers and Floral Friends:

WITH the coming of another planting season we are greatly pleased in presenting you with this, our 16th Annual Catalog and Cultural Guide.

It is with grateful remembrance of the past summer and fall, with our best wishes for the present and bright hopes for the coming season that we extend to every flower lover, with a garden, our greetings.

The great popularity of the Dahlia is ever increasing. This is proven by the yearly increase in the number of dahlia shows and the larger and more enthusiastic attendance which they are receiving.

We are proud to call your attention to our latest dahlia originations. Such creations as Sunset Aglow, Nature's Masterpiece, Golden Emblem, Syncopation and Veiled Loveliness have a great future ahead and will be known nationally in a short time.

We thank you, one and all, for all favors in the past, and wish you even greater success in the growing of your dahlias etc., for this coming season.

NOTE—All the Dahlias marked with a (†) are Pacific Northwest originations

Plant Dahlia Plants -- They are cheaper than tubers.

We can supply green Plants, of all the Dahlias in this catalog, except White's Winning Wonders, and those prefixed with a ★. Ready for delivery about May 10th to June 20th, at prices stated below. They will be sent Prepaid by parcel post.

Dahlia Plants are NOT Seedlings and will bloom absolutely true to the variety of tubers from which they are taken. All plants we send out are propagated properly, and will form tubers for you for planting the next spring. Remember, some sorts are always shy root producers.

Prices on green Plants are as follows: (All prices quoted in this catalog are for tubers.)

| If catalog price on Tubers is: | Plants are: | If tubers are: | Plants are: |

Dahlia plants will give equal or better results than tubers, if given a little more care in their early growth. In our own Show Garden we have always used them whenever obtainable. This season we are much better prepared to grow them, and intend using them almost exclusively for our display plants. However, we do not recommend "plants" to the new beginner but will venture to say that they are preferred by practically all experienced growers and especially when prize-winning blooms are desired for the Fall Dahlia Shows. You will never know all about Dahlias before giving plants a fair trial.

Our experience and method of packing plants for shipment by parcel post, enables us to guarantee that they will arrive at their destination in perfect condition. They can be sent with safety for a distance requiring from three to four days in transit.

If you live further than 4th zone, add 5c to each plant for extra postage, packing.

SUNSET AGLOW—Although this is our only introduction for 1928, we believe it is one of the best and most unique novelties ever originated. Practically all visitors in our garden would pass up many of the newest varieties and then stop and admire the two bushes of this unusual dahlia in flower. Tall, stately plants with flowers 8 to 9 inches across, carried perfectly upright, high above the foliage. The length of the strong, wiry stems is an outstanding feature. Those who wish 3 ft. stems with the least possible joints, or sets of leaves will marvel at this newest creation. The form is quite distinct and very attractive with long, artistically waved and twisted petals. The coloring is unique and quite original. Face of petals is a luminous golden buff; the reverse, which is prominently shown by the twisting of the petals (see photo), is the rich old-rosy red of the sunset. Quite a contrast in color, yet they are blended harmoniously. Has lasted extra well in all our exhibits. Strong tubers, $7.50 NET.

OREGON AUTUMN—(1927)—Decorative—If you are a lover of rich, autumn colored dahlias that are held perfectly erect on top of strong wire-like stems, you'll like this new one. The form, size and position of the blooms on the stems are identical with that unsurpassed Holland variety "Insulinda" (page 16), but of better substance and much more lasting as a cut flower. The color is a rich golden buff, with the underside of the wavy petals a very odd cinnamon rose shade. The contrast of these two shades on a plant is quite effective. Sturdy grower of medium height and blooms aplenty all thru the season. Tubers Each, $5.00

VEILED LOVELINESS—(1927) Really a very exceptional giant Decorative dahlia. The color is bluish white with the reverse of petals flushed baby pink, or, one might say it is a lovely pale pink behind a veil of white veined with pink. Sturdy plants of medium height with perfectly formed blooms, 8 to 10 inches across (and they look every bit of it) with no sign of coarseness. The blooms are held well above the foliage, at just the right angle to show to best advantage, on very stout stems. It strongly appeals to, and captivates at first glance, practically every visitor to our gardens. There is something most attractive about it which we can not explain. Fine substance and grand for exhibition or garden. Strong tubers, $7.50

Received Certificate of Merit at Northwest Trial Grounds, scoring 87 Exhibition.

GOLDEN EMBLEM—Art Decorative—We are convinced this wonder of wonders is one of, if not the finest, largest, purest, deep rich yellow dahlias in existence today. A clear, golden yellow, without shading or any traces of any other color whatsoever. The huge flowers, 9 to 10 in. across, are of the most artistic and refined form imaginable with their high centers and long, wavy, recurving petals. Blooms are erect on long, wiry stems, far above foliage. Of fine substance, keeping as long as any dahlia of its size, when cut or on the plant. Blooms early and freely all season long. Always the most popular pure yellow with visitors in our Gardens or when exhibited at the Dahlia Shows. Tubers, $4.00

Received the Certificate of Merit at the Northwest Trial Gardens at Puyallup, Wash.

SYNCOPATION—Cactus Decorative—Almost everyone that sees this big jazzy colored dahlia in our gardens is "just crazy about it". If you like bright bi-color combinations, this wonderful, large sort will make an irresistible appeal to you. Buff yellow with center of each petal a deep cherry red, blending together beautifully. Very distinct. Strong, vigorous grower of medium height with large, leathery foliage and long stout stems that hold the blooms in a perfectly erect position, far above the foliage. One of the most effective for garden or exhibition. Nothing like it. Each, $3.00
Syncopation scored 86 Exhibition at the Northwest Trial Grounds, but scores practically 100 per cent in popularity with visitors at our Gardens and Dahlia Show exhibits.

“NATURE’S MASTERPIECE” (White’s) A 1926 Introduction

Scored 93 Exhibition (highest on record) at the Northwest Trial Grounds.
Sweepstakes winner (best all-round flower) at Northwest Dahlia Growers Assn. Show, Portland, Ore., 1927.

Nature was so generous in her use of colors in this wonder creation, that, ever since it first bloomed some six years ago, we have wondered how we would describe it’s peculiar but fascinating shade. Here is our feeble attempt. A most elegant, rich combination of old rose, cinnamon and metallic bronze, blended into one color, suffused with mulberry. In addition to this it’s effectiveness is increased by a violet shaded reflex. A most wonderful dahlia that has already gained a national reputation, as one of the greatest dahlias of all. It’s enormous size, great depth, wonderful coloring and strong growth with long, cane-like stems holding blooms perfectly erect, is unsurpassed. The petal formation is as near perfect as possible, having no sign of coarseness.

OF PREVIOUS INTRODUCTION

'ELIZABETH WHITE'

Giant Decorative

A dahlia named in memory of our mother. Naturally, it had to be something appropriate and of the highest possible merit and that would soon become a universal favorite, and remain such. In this new wonder creation we have found our ideal. The giant flowers, 8 and 9 in. in diameter, are of very perfect and refined form. The long, individual stems are all that one could ask for, and no extra large dahlia will bloom better. The color is simply beautiful and pleases everyone. Best described as a rich combination of coral pink and salmon, intensified by a bright amber-like glow at the base of petals and throughout the entire flower. An ideal grower of medium height. Each, $3.00

Scored 88 points at the Northwest Trial Grounds of the A. D. S. at Puyallup, Wn.

ELIZABETH WHITE

INDEPENDENCE—Decorative—Blooms are 8 to 9 inches across and 6 to 7 inches in depth. Imagine these heavy blossoms standing most rigidly erect on the finest of stems, looking you right in the eye. Plants are of sturdy growth. The color is an attractive deep mauve pink or lilac. Withstands more abuse from rain and storms than most any other large dahlia we have grown. Late in some seasons this changes to a beautiful giant peony dahlia, admired as much or even more than when so double, M.e.g.c. $2.00

OREGON RUSSET—Peony-flowered type—This is always a revelation to all who see it in bloom in our display gardens. Of giant size and beautiful, informal shape with curling petaloids around center. Early and profuse bloomer with splendid stems, lasting exceptionally well as a cut flower. A distinct and very attractive color hard to describe. The center of flower is a rich golden ochre, quickly blending to bronzy salmon and heavily shaded sunset red on outer half of petals. Medium height. A wonderful 'wonder' that we can be justly proud of. Each, $2.50

PACIFIC SUNSET—An immense Peony, often over 10 in. across, and looks every bit as large as it measures, as each petal is over $2\frac{1}{4}$ in. in width almost its entire length. The color is a soft and very pleasing shade of salmon buff, suffused with apricot on the outer half of the petals. An ideal autumn shade and a free bloomer. The stems are strong and extra long. Last but not least, it is more FRAGRANT than any of the other so-called, sweet scented dahlias ever introduced. Stock limited. Each, \$2.00

SPECIAL OFFER No. 9—One each of Independence & Oregon Russet for only, $3.00.

WHITE'S WINNING WONDERS

Continued

AUTUMN GIANT—A giant peony-flowered dahlia with exceptional cane-like stems that can often be cut three feet long. A glistening golden bronze with center petals of a bronzy tint. Of wonderful form and growth with large, outstanding foliage. The blooms are held at the right angle for best effect, far above the foliage. One of the very best keeping large dahlias, when cut. Each, $2.50

BLUSHING MONARCH—Cactus-Decorative. Huge, massive flowers; perfect form and great depth; extra heavy, long stems. Glistening pearly white, flushed a pale rose. Of very rank, branching growth, needing a little thinning. An unusual creation; greatly admired. Each, $2.00

Bronze Giant—Decorative—Generally, we prefer names that give some idea of the color, etc. of a flower. In this, the name is about all that is necessary. Of a rich brownish bronze, almost globular in its form on stout stems. D.e.g. Each, $1.00

FASCINATOR—Full Peony type—This is one of the most effective dahlias, and even more so at a little distance off. Flowers are of a pleasing rosy cerise for about two-thirds of the length of petals, then softens suddenly to a deep orchid pink. This gives a tipped appearance which is most attractive and fascinating. The blooms will average 7 inches across and are produced very freely on long, strong stems all season long. Each, $2.00

GLENDENNING—Decorative—Is similar in form to our "Jack London", which has become such a big favorite. An elegant glowing crimson, with a darker center. Ideal upright grower with huge flowers erect on extra long, strong stems above the foliage. Something more than just another red dahlia. T. e.g.c. $1.50

JACK LONDON—Red decoratives are quite numerous, but no one could resist this, when seen growing in our Gardens. Strong, erect growth; stems are long. The large blooms are held upright and the color is a dazzling vermilion scarlet, T. e. g. c. .75

Lady Valdine—Decorative—Produces large flowers from early till late on extra fine, long stems. It has a rather new color tone, best described as deep bluish lavender, having a decided bluish cast at twilight. Strong grower, T.g.c. $1.00

MOONLIGHT GLOW—Full Peony type. One of the largest of all, with broad petals and tiny florets clustered around center. Color is soft salmon pink, flushed with delicate pastel rose on outer petals and shading to a creamy glow at the heart. A strong, robust grower and splendid stems. You'll like this one, T.e.g. $2.00

ORVILLE A. STEVENS—Ideal Peony dahlia on strong, erect stems for cutting. Distinct light orange scarlet color. A strong, upright habit and blooms very freely, T. g. c. .30

OREGON SUNSET—Giant Peony-flowered blooms of rich golden yellow, heavily suffused bronzy crimson. Free flowering and a vigorous grower; fine stems, M. e. g. .75

SUN-KISSED—Decorative-Cactus—A soft golden yellow touched with a coppery tint on outer petals. Good yellow dahlias are not plentiful, and for size, freedom and continuity of bloom, few dahlias can equal it. A wonderfully showy garden plant looking like a huge bouquet. A healthy grower of medium height, with monstrous erect flowers. Each, $2.00

SPECIAL—We will send postpaid, one tuber each of BRONZE GIANT & Moonlight Glow for, $2.00

17 New and Rare Imported European Dahlias

SOME ARE HERE OFFERED FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE U. S.

In the past few years the leading Dahlia Specialists of Europe have been originating some marvelous new varieties. Some are of grand size, others are unique in form and color, but all are unsurpassed for quality of stem, position and firmness of the flowers on the stem and usefulness as lasting cut flowers.

Nearly all we offer have received one or more Awards of Merit or First Class Certificates in Europe.

All are DECORATIVE type, unless otherwise mentioned. Note we offer PLANTS ONLY of some.

ADLER—Snow white flowers 6 to 7 in. in diameter are held stoutly erect on long stems far above a low, vigorous bush. In our estimation, a white that will be hard to beat. A modern Holland creation, D. g. c. $1.50

COURONNE D'OR (Crown of Gold)—One of the finest and largest European dahlias ever created. A striking shade of rich, golden orange. Perfect form, extra long, stout stems and everything. A remarkably long lasting cut flower variety, T. e. g. c. $2.00

Dr. GRAFIN Von SCHWERIN—A creamy white, shaded soft lilac or lavender, becoming deepest on the outer half of petals. The cleanest and most beautiful lavender colored, large dahlia we have ever seen. Grand, free flowering habit with every flower facing you on ideal stems, M. g. c. Plant, $3.50

EARLY GEM—Most pleasing shade of bright orange and all its name implies. Very early, constant bloomer and a real gem for perfection of form, stem, and as a cut flower or a showy garden plant, M. g. c. Plant, $2.00

ERNEST De MUYSER—This new Belgian has the longest stems we have yet seen. Immense blooms erect, high high above foliage. Pleasing shade of cyclamen rose, tinted lilac. Truly an acquisition. T. e. g. c. Plant, $1.75

MABLE LAWRENCE—A wonderful variety from England. Spectrum red in color and is, we think, the best all around red Decorative to date. Of immense size and perfect form. The stems and habit of growth are second to none. Great substance, M. e. g. c. $7.50

MAD. EMILE DRAPS—Marvelous Belgian creation of giant size and great depth, held far above foliage on most rigid stems. Deep golden bronze, tinted rosy cerise with backs of petals a light cerise, veined dark. Extra fine; robust grower, M. e. g. c. Plant, $3.00

MAD. A. THIERRARD—Distinct shade of Rose-mauve with yellow at base of petals. Quite original and novel in many ways. The flowers are deep and high centered with petals reflexed slightly and coming to a sharp point at tips. They set right on top of extra long, erect stems. We highly recommend this free flowering Belgian dahlia, M. g. c. $2.50

MAD. ELISE PEETERS—Very pleasing soft lilac rose, shading lighter in the center. A great bloomer and held erect on best of stems. Ideal habit of growth and lasting cut flower. Certificate of Merit at Brussels, M. g. c. $1.50

Mr. EUGENE DRAPS—Belgian Hybrid cactus of unusual coloring. Deep cerise red with ends of petals pure white. Very free flowering on rigid stems. Quite showy, M. g. c. 1.50

NAGEL'S ROEM—A distinct type of Hybrid Cactus of large size borne aloft on very rigid stems. Naples yellow, tinted salmon and chamoise. One of the best dahlias of Belgian origin, receiving 3 1st Class Certificates in France and Belgium, M. e. g. c. $4.00

NAGEL'S WITTE—Well formed flowers of purest white. Free flowering on strong stems high above foliage; excellent cut flower. Certificate of Merit at Haarlem, M. g. c. $1.50

PINK FAVORITE—A grand Cactus-Decorative of perfect form. A most pleasing pure pink, passing to white center. Long stems; flowers erect high above foliage. Early and free flowering. Twice winner of the coveted Challenge Cup in Holland, M. g. c. Plant, $3..

PRES. CHAS. BOSSCHERE—Very unique color. Deep salmony old-rose with a deep mauve reflex. Very strong, erect grower; extra long, stout stems. Something different; very lasting cut flower, T g. c. $2.50

RAPALLO—Medium size blooms of velvety mahogany red reverse and tips gold. Blooms profusely; striking cut flower, D. g. c. 1.00

SIGNOOR—A new Belgian creation that is unequalled in its color and type. One of, if not the finest, blood red Hybrid Cactus dahlias to date. Ideal erect growth with long, stiffly erect stems and flowers. The large, incurved blooms have a distinct and artistic petal formation and always full in the center to the last. Of very lasting substance. Highest Awards in Belgium, M. e. g. c. $5.00

VIEIL ANVERS—A rather dwarf yet strong growing plant with distinct, star shaped flowers that set horizontally erect on top of extra stout stems. Pale pinkish salmon, tinted old rose and violet. Something entirely different; a grand garden plant, M. g. c. $2.00

(*) TUBERS ONLY—No green Plants of these this year. See page 1.

DECORATIVE DAHLIAS

Large, double flowers with long flat petals, generally loosely formed and overlapping. Many of the finest new Dahlias are in this class as well as most of the best cut-flower varieties. Very fine for decorative purposes.

AL KORAN—Yellow, suffused with amber. A giant attractive flower held erect on long, strong stems. Petals have a 'marcelle wave' appearance, T. e. g. $1.00

Wired Tree Labels

KEEP YOUR DAHLIAS NAMED

These are plain, painted wooden labels with copper wires and are just the thing for labeling your Dahlia clumps, when digging and storing. 40 for 20c; 90 for 40c Postpaid to 4th zone.

Mixed Dahlia Tubers

We never have, and hope we never will find it necessary to catalog or sell cheap, unnamed or mixed dahlia tubers. To us, this seems to cheapen them unjustly, and we love the 'king of autumn flowers' too much for that.

Old Fashioned Show or Ball Dahlias

TUBERS ONLY
No Green Plants.

These are the fine, old fashioned double Dahlias of your grandmother's yard. Large, perfectly formed, ball shaped flowers, with cupped or quilled petals like a honeycomb.

TESTIMONIALS!

Yes, we have them—our files are full of them, but we have never had much space or desire to have them in full dress, parading thru our catalogs.

GLADIOLI

THE CUT FLOWER
PRE-EMINENT

The most beautiful and attractive of all summer flowering bulbs are the newer Gladioli. Such a rapid improvement has been made during the past few years in the size, color and beauty of these flowers, that the result is wonderful. If cut when the first buds open and allowed to develop indoors, every bud will open and the size and color will be more perfect than if left in the sun. The spikes will continue to open additional buds for a week or two weeks, according to the variety and conditions.

THE MODERN GLADIOLI

5c. each; 50c., dozen; $3.50 per 100

AMERICA—Beautiful soft flesh pink, tinted with delicate lavender. Large, open flowers.

Attraction—Bright carmine; white throat.

BLACK HAWK—Deep, rich cardinal with throat nearly black. Early.

Golden King—Bright yellow with a striking crimson blotch in the throat. Large spike.

Halley—Large open flower of a beautiful salmon pink. Without doubt one of the best.

Mrs. Fran. King — One of the most attractive and popular Gladioli. Striking shade of light scarlet or flame color. Very large.

Pasha—Brilliant orange with mottled throat. Large, open flowers. Distinct and very showy.

Scarsdale—A dark rosy lavender. Large open flowers and a tall spike.

Velvet King—A most reliable rich red sort; large and early. Ideal for large beds.

"Glads", when cut, will last in water from 1 to 2 weeks. Think of it! Weeks, not days.

CULTURE— You can plant a Gladiolus bulb in most any kind of soil and it will bloom, but attention to a few simple details will produce superior results. Sound healthy bulbs and a sunny situation is the most important. Successive plantings in the same place should be avoided when possible. Plant 3 to 5 inches apart and to a depth of 4 to 6 inches, depending on size of bulb and character of soil. May be planted as early as the end of March or as late as the middle of June. By planting at intervals during this time you will have flowers all season. Cultivate often until flower spikes appear, then if possible, cover the ground with a mulch and water thoroughly when in bloom. Dig in November (or sooner if foliage begins to ripen) on a sunny day if possible, so as to allow them to dry off well before storing in a cool, dry, frost-proof place. Cut off the tops close up to the bulb, as soon as dug.

6 of a variety at the dozen rate.

Less than 6 of a kind will be charged for at the single price rate.

How To Grow Dahlias Successfully

The Dahlia of to-day is one of the easiest of all flowers to grow and will produce more flowers, size considered, than any other plant grown, if these simple cultural directions are followed closely. Prepare the soil thoroughly by spading the ground 12 to 18 inches deep in the Fall, if possible, and again in the Spring, pulverizing it as much as you can. If soil is quite sandy, some well rotted manure thoroly mixed in, will be of great help to hold the moisture.

Very heavy or clay soil is greatly benifited by adding some coarse sand or coal ashes. One of the best times to cultivate Dahlias, etc., is before you plant. Work your soil thoroly. If your soil will grow good potatoes, you can easily grow Dahlias and Gladioli successfully. On very poor soil work in a little well-rotted manure or bone meal, but don't overdo it. Don't plant Dahlias or Gladioli too near the roots of rank growing trees or shrubs.

When possible, give your dahlias a bed 6 feet wide, planting two rows down the middle. Select an open, sunny situation, although they do quite well in partial shade if given a little more space or keep well thinned out. Getting full benefit of all the morning sun only is ideal. Don't plant Dahlia roots too close. They should have at least three feet of space.

Don't plant too early. Dahlias dislike to bloom during the hot, dry, summer weather. They are really an Autumn flower and should not bloom till the summer is about over. From early May to first of June is the planting time we recommend for Portland and similar climates. This will give you flowers from the middle of August to heavy frost. However, those living near the ocean, or those having success with them flowering in the summer, plant in early April.

Never stand the tuber on end when planting. Lay flat in the hole 6 to 8 inches deep. The size of any tuber makes no difference as long as it has one good strong eye or sproat. Put sand under your bulb, 2 or 3 in. of soil over it, and the other 3 or 4 in. after it is up.

Allow only one sprout to grow from each tuber. You will get more and larger blooms. When plants have made their second or third set of leaves, pinch out the top—sure, we do. This causes the plant to grow a stout branch at the base of each of the four or six leaves left. If buds form on plants too young, pick them off—let the plants grow first and then bloom. Best fertilizer for young, growing Dahlia plants is the hoe and elbow grease every few days.

You can easily overwater, when plants are young, but you can not over cultivate them. It is much better not to water, than to allow a crust to form, after watering—cultivate lightly. Daily surface sprinklings do more harm than good—soak the beds thoroughly when needed. It is far better to give a dahlia seven buckets of water in one day, than 1 a day for 7 days. Dahlias like plenty of water when in bloom but can't stand wet feet. How is your drainage? To have the greatest success is to keep them growing, but as strong and sturdy as possible. You will get few, if any, blooms (and inferior) from growth that is hardened or stunted.

When buds appear, stop all deep cultivation and give the beds a mulch of manure, leaves, grass clippings, etc. If sufficient mulching is not available, make a shallow basin around each plant, and fill well with mulching. Every week or ten days, scatter more manure or other fertilizer over the beds. Feeding in liquid form is best but don't give too much at one time.

If you want larger Dahlias and of greater substance with longer, stronger stems—disbud. When the size of peas, pinch off all buds in a cluster except the largest, unless it is deformed.

To help prevent disease, give your Dahlias a shower bath daily, during dry, hot weather. Never leave Dahlias in the ground over winter. Store in a frost proof place, like potatoes.

A few days after the tops have been blackened by a heavy frost, late in the Fall, cut them off and dig carefully so as not to break the necks of tubers. Remove most of the soil, but not necessarily all of it. If possible, dig on a sunny day, allowing clumps to dry as much as possible before storing, cutting off the remaining hollow stalk as close to tubers as you can. If troubled with wet rot, turn clumps upside down or, split stalk and clump in halves.

KEEPING DAHLIA BLOOMS WHEN CUT—Cut flowers as late as possible in the evening or very early in the morning, while the dew is still on them. Cut with long stems and dip the ends of the stems (2 to 3 inches) in almost boiling water for 20 seconds to one minute, depending on length and texture of the stem. Then immediately submerge them put them in a cool place, away from all draft vases. The more of the stem you can have in will keep fresh. When cutting dahlia blooms try and select those that are in their prime, as those not fully developed will wilt easily.

Visit Our Gardens

1 block North of Peninsula Park

We wish to extend to all a hearty invitation to visit our Dahlia and Floral Gardens. Over 700 named varieties of Dahlias, including the best European and American Novelties, as well as many new Creations of our own origin not yet offered to the public, will be growing under most up-to-date methods, and will be at their best after the middle of August, and until a heavy frost.

All flower lovers and especially Dahlia enthusiasts should try and see the Dahlias during September or early October, as we honestly believe it will be time well spent.
